Mission

Formulate, regulate, govern and direct the State's labor policy in order to promote, secure and restore labor rights with attention to gender, and to economically active population through the system of inspection, dialogue, alliance and consensus, between workers and employers, that derive better working conditions, prevention and resolution of labor disputes, promotion of employment and labor market policies, in accordance with labor legislation and ratified international conventions.

Vision

Establishment of a model of fair labor relations, based on the protection and restitution of labor rights of rural and urban workers, in a social and labor environment with equity that contributes to the sustainable development of the nation and to the improvement of the standard of living of working families.