Department of Labour

Mission

To foster and safeguard, without prejudice, amicable employment relationships between employers and employees, endeavoring to promote general welfare, social and industrial peace and harmony within the Federation.