

Intersectoral Workshop on Youth Employment Coordination between Education and Labor

Brasilia, December 15th and 16th, 2016

María Claudia Camacho,
Chief of Labor and Employment Section,
Dpt. Human Development, Education and Employment, SEDI, OAS

Organization of American States

Why are we here?

236 Millions youth
in the Americas

Why are we here?

Challenges in employment, which hit the most vulnerable youth

Unemployment

Youth in Extreme Poverty 24.6%

Of Middle Class 7%

Informality

Youth with Elementary
Education 68%

With College Degree 24%

Inactivity

21%

Almost 30 Millions
youth in Latin America and Caribbean

76% women

Why are we here?

Paradox – What the productive sector says?

- Difficulty in finding talent
- High value of socio-emotional competences

Why are we here?

The New World of Labor

Why are we here?

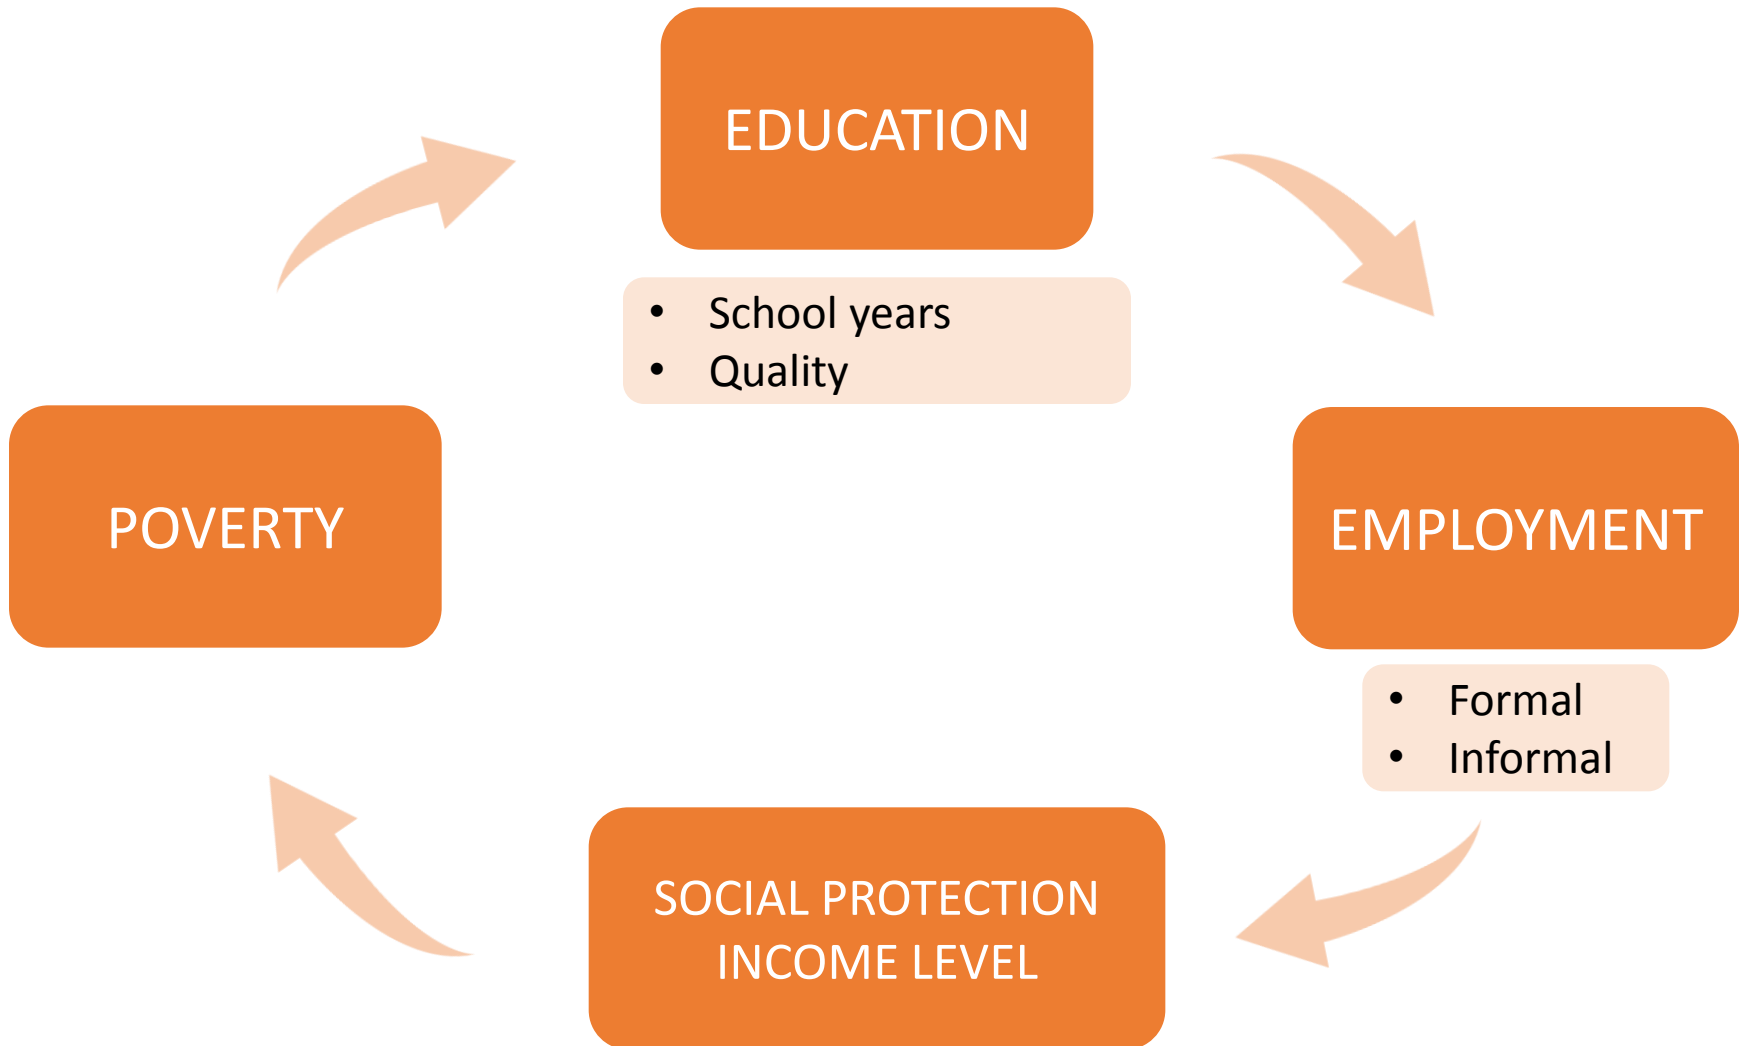

New Generation

All this requires us to think and rethink

public policies together

Why together?

Why together?

EDUCATION

- School year
- Quality

- Information of labor market
- Labor prospective
- Continuing training
- Internships, apprenticeship
- Employment services

- Quality
- Relevance
- Lifelong Education
- Basic, technological and socio emotional competences

EMPLOYMENT

- Formal
- Informal

Thank you for your attention

Questions?